SEEKS $7,000,000 TO ENFORCE DRY LAW

Secretary of Treasury Wants Concentration of Liquor Into Few Government Warehouses.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 .- The secre ary of the treasury will ask for $7,000. 000 for the enforcement of prohibition the next fiscal year. That is $2,000,000 more than was allowed by congress this year. Before the coming session is over that estimate may be increased.

Foreible concentration in a few gov ernment warehouses of approximately 40,000,000 gallons of whiskey, to be in the keeping of the commissioner of inernal revenue, is proposed in legislation that will be considered by the executive ommittee of the Antisaloon league at a eeting two weeks hence.

No provision to pay for the whiskey has been agreed to by the drys. This will be considered by the ways and means ommittee, which will be asked early in the short session to make provision for whiskey supplies.
